Part IV - Additional Information

Part I, Line 2:

Grants and Other Assistance to Individuals in the United States consists of awards to winners of our Annual Case Study Competition. The Arthur W. Page Society, in alliance with the Institute for Public Relations, sponsors an annual competition for the writing of original case studies by students enrolled in an accredited school of business, communication or journalism and who are pursuing a degree that focuses on corporate communications and the practice of public relations. The objectives of the competition are to: 1.) Introduce the practical applications of the core principles that define public relations as a critical function of management to scholars, teachers, and students; 2.) Encourage research which contributes to the profession's body of knowledge and provides practical suggestions on how to improve the corporate public relations function. Student authors of winning entries and their faculty advisors are awarded cash prizes and recognized by the nation's leading corporate communications executives. The Grand Prize winners are invited to the annual Awards Ceremony Dinner held each spring in New York.

Page periodically provides sponsorship to programs of organizations with similar missions. These are one time gifts and no monitoring is required.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

During Page's first Board of Trustees meeting in 2019, the Board Chair reminded the trustees of their commitment to the conflict of interest (COI) policy. Each trustee was then asked to complete a conflict of interest (COI) statement. The statement required each trustee to personally affirm that she or he has reviewed the COI policy, understands the policy, and agrees to comply with the policy. Page staff sent email follow-up reminders to trustees who did not complete the COI statement onsite, including those who participated in the meeting via teleconference or who were absent.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Process for Top Official

When the President was hired in 2011, the firm researched roles, responsibilities and qualifications and, using comparative data for like-sized organizations, provided compensation recommendations to a search committee of the Board. The search committee was comprised of members independent of the President. The Executive Committee considered information obtained regarding the hiring of the President to be current and entered into a contract with Roger Bolton on similar terms, adjusted for differences in qualifications. The search committee and the full board approved the contract. There has been no change to the contract since that time.
