

2026 Page Annual Conference

Cedric Grant,
Partner,
Government Relations Co-Lead,
Avoq.

Cedric is a seasoned government relations and policy strategist specializing in House Democratic Leadership and the Congressional Black Caucus, where he helps corporate and nonprofit clients navigate complex policy issues across healthcare, financial services, tech, appropriations, and sports and entertainment.

At Avoq, he leads strategic advocacy efforts, builds influential third-party coalitions, and develops communications campaigns that align policy goals with broader business growth strategies. Previously, Cedric served as director of government relations for H&R Block and as chief of staff to House Democratic Leader Hakeem Jeffries, where he played a key role in shaping legislative strategy and stakeholder engagement. Originally from Mount Vernon, New York, Cedric now lives in Maryland with his family and is a devoted Washington Commanders fan with a passion for architecture and interior design.
