

2026 Page Annual Conference

Joe Householder, Partner, Longacre Square Partners

Joe Householder is a Partner at Longacre Square Partners and leads the firm's Washington, D.C. office.

He heads the Issues Management and Crisis Communications practice and provides strategic counsel to many of the firm's clients. Joe began his career as a radio reporter before leading communications for a major multi-national law firm, and several political campaigns.

He later served as communications director for then-Senator Hillary Rodham Clinton. Since 2005, he has advised corporations, boards, and executives on communications strategy and high-stakes situations.